

I feel as I pay for this service they should be able to provide me with the programing that is under question. XM gives the listener a choice in programing that regular radio cant.